Neath California's golden skies, Where the snow-capped mountains rise, Near the ocean's rugged coast,

Stands the school which we love most; With its student bo-dy, loyal and true,

And its co-lors white and blue. With your banner high, Unfurled toward the sky, No school could be more dear than you.

Chorus
White for loyal-ty, Blue for royal-ty, Service spells the way to fame.

Character will be our aim, Just as long as you remain, Lynwood we be-long to you.

(you can go ahead & decorate the sides now - I know ya want to (Ha Ha!)) ☺

Hey Matt!

(How was that for a beginning? ☺) Well, I'm finally signing your annual!!! (It took me long enough! - ya I know!) This time I don't think I'll be struggling to fill up a page, because this past year has shown me so much! I didn't realize how much I (especially) needed to grow until I see where I've been, & still see where I need to go! But we've made it! That old cliché - "thio' thick & thin" really has a meaning now, 'cause I think we've been through it!!

ya know, you mean more to me this year than you ever have in the past.
I've never felt this kind of feeling before with anyone! Though I'm not making a commitment - (yet! ☺) - I feel that God has really blessed us both, & has many more plans ahead! Let's hang in there - O.K.? ☺

There's many more good times ahead - like the hangout, - the boat^(!!!!) the summer! - the whole summer! Wow! & let's not forget the good times in the past - like the hangout, (♥) - the boat^(!!!!) & last summer! (Ha Ha!)

Always remember my favorite - (our favorite)

"sweet spring is your time is my time is our time for springtime is lovetime & viva sweet love"

There's also another one that's really pretty & means alot to me:

"with every moment
my love for you grows wild as the summer grass:
mow it; pluck it; if you will-- soon it will grow tall again.

I'll close now with that thought in mind & remember it always - remember me always

Love you much,
Cindy

Editor's Message

Lynwood is a school of many varied people, personalities, life styles, and cultures. Daily we reach out for challenges, involvement, friendship, love, hope, and support.

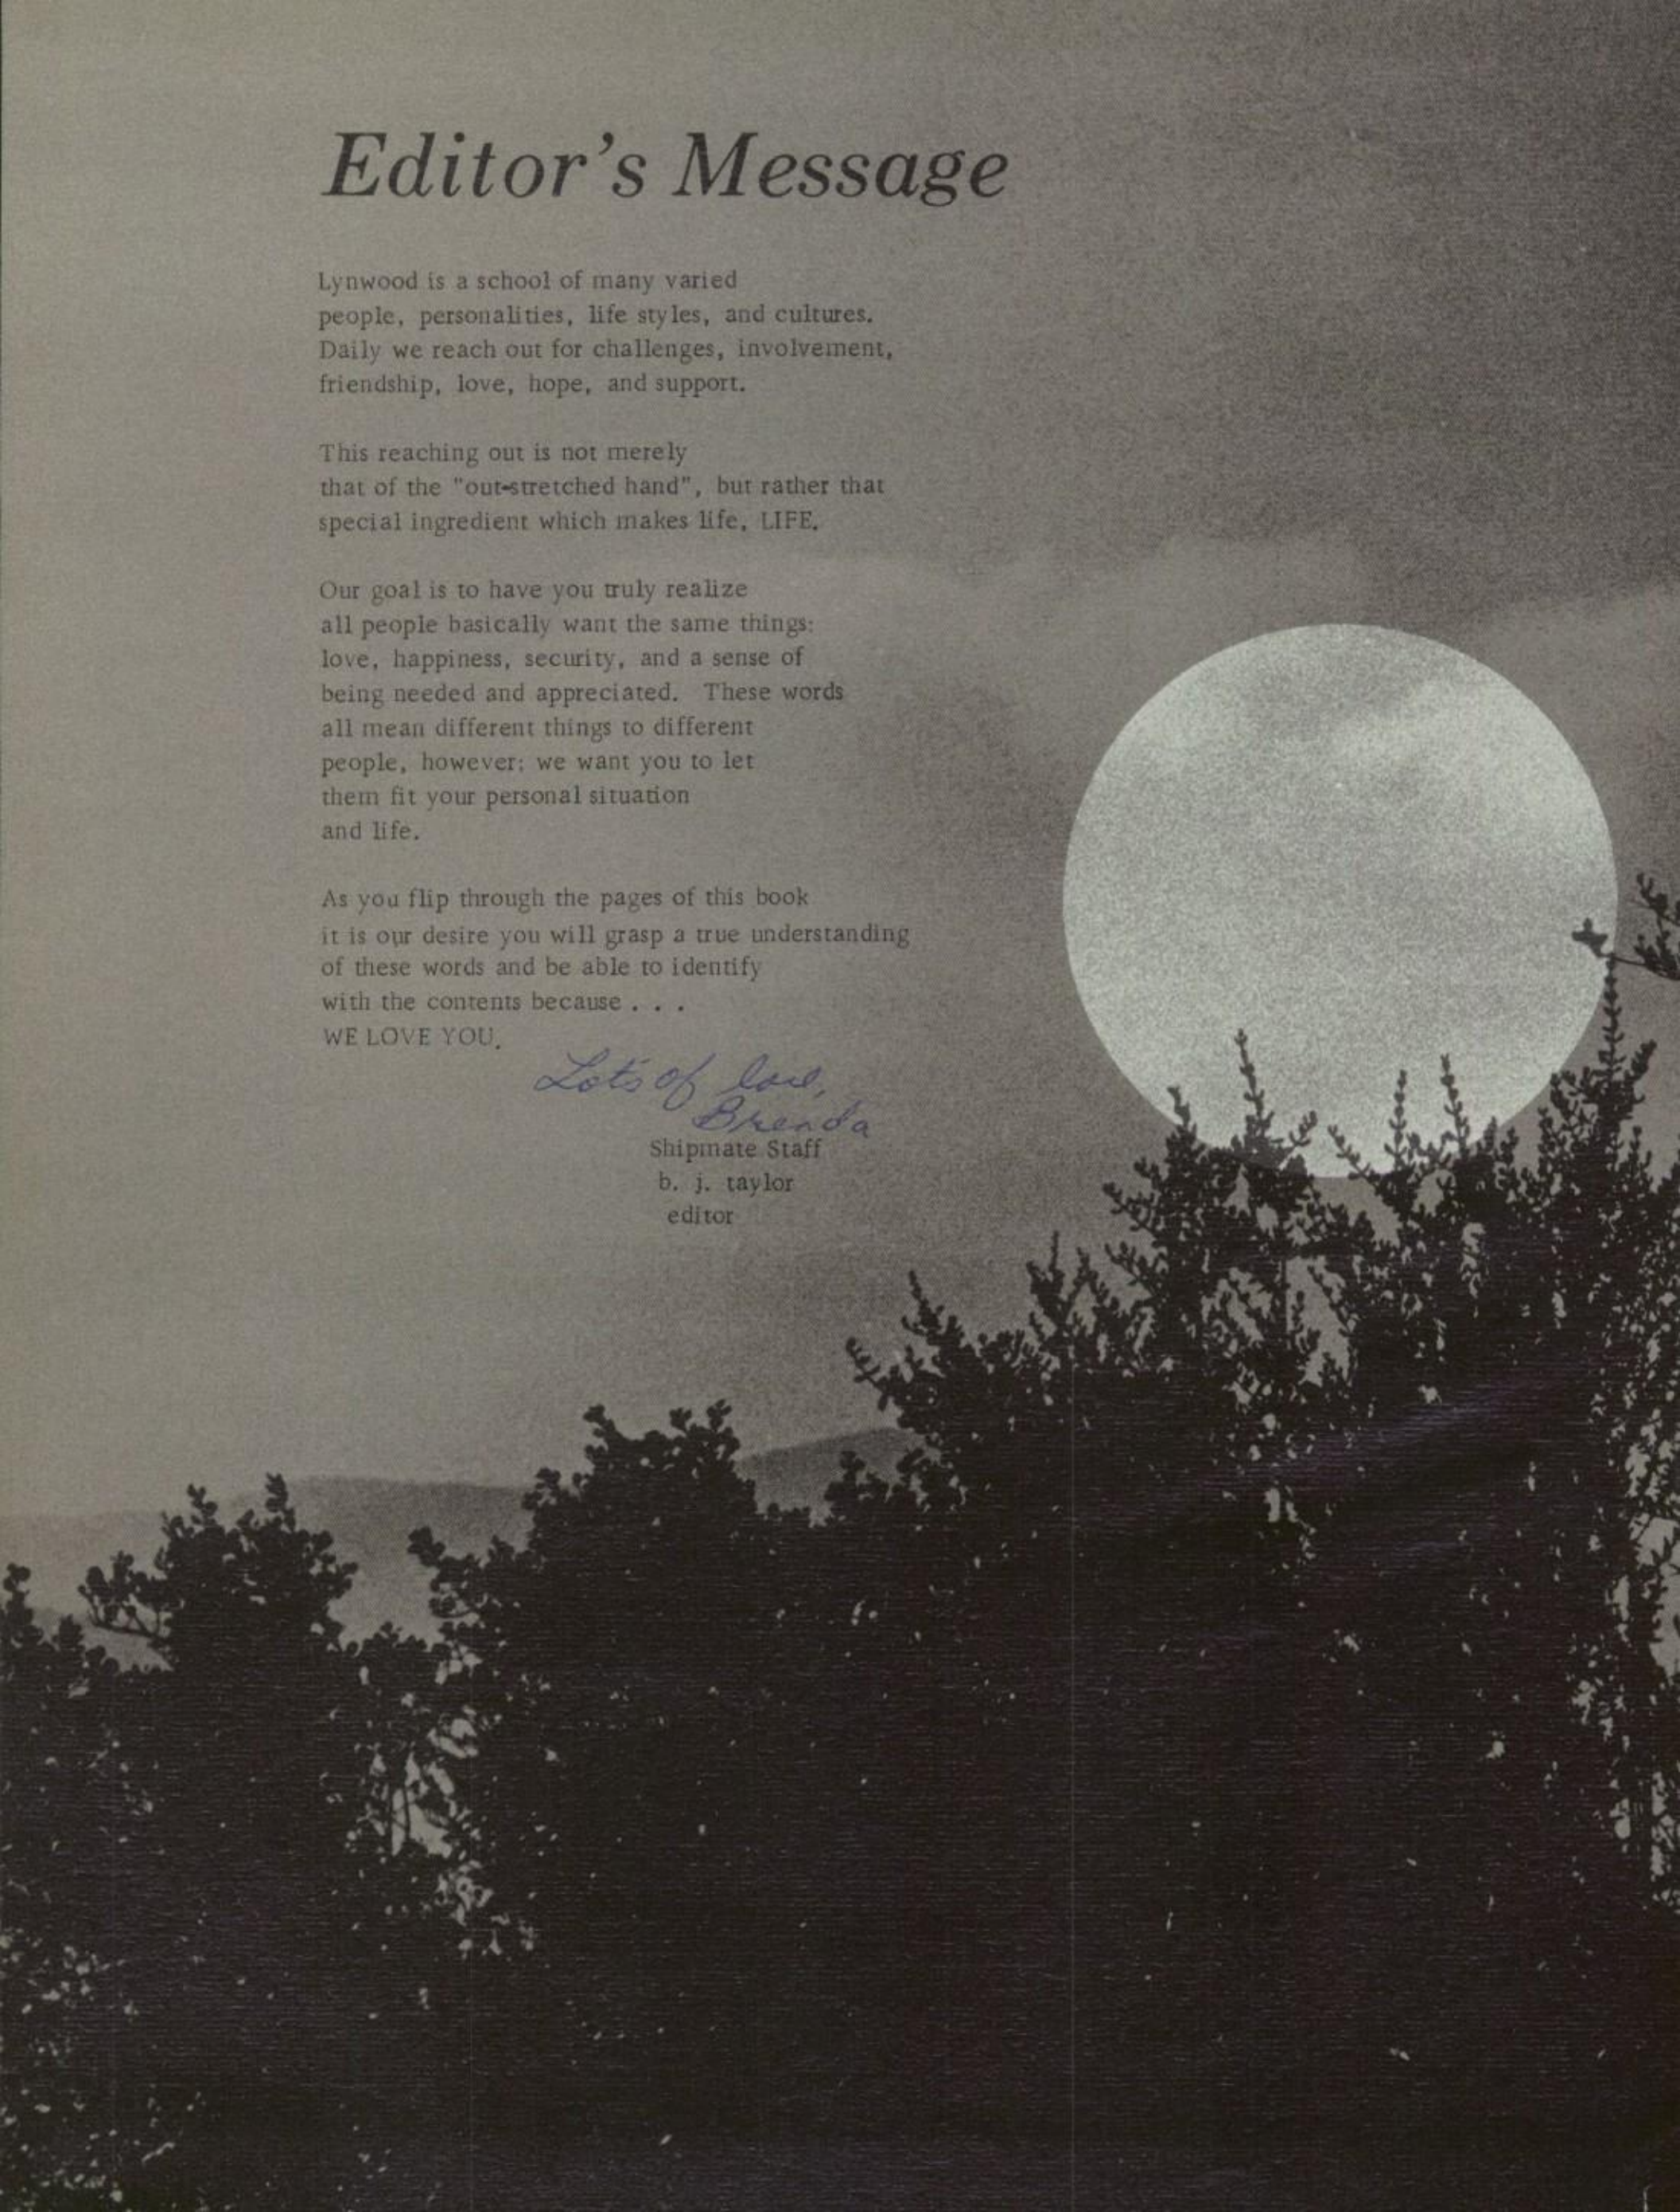

This reaching out is not merely that of the "out-stretched hand", but rather that special ingredient which makes life, LIFE.

Our goal is to have you truly realize all people basically want the same things: love, happiness, security, and a sense of being needed and appreciated. These words all mean different things to different people, however; we want you to let them fit your personal situation and life.

As you flip through the pages of this book it is our desire you will grasp a true understanding of these words and be able to identify with the contents because . . .
WE LOVE YOU.

Lots of love, Brenda

Dedication

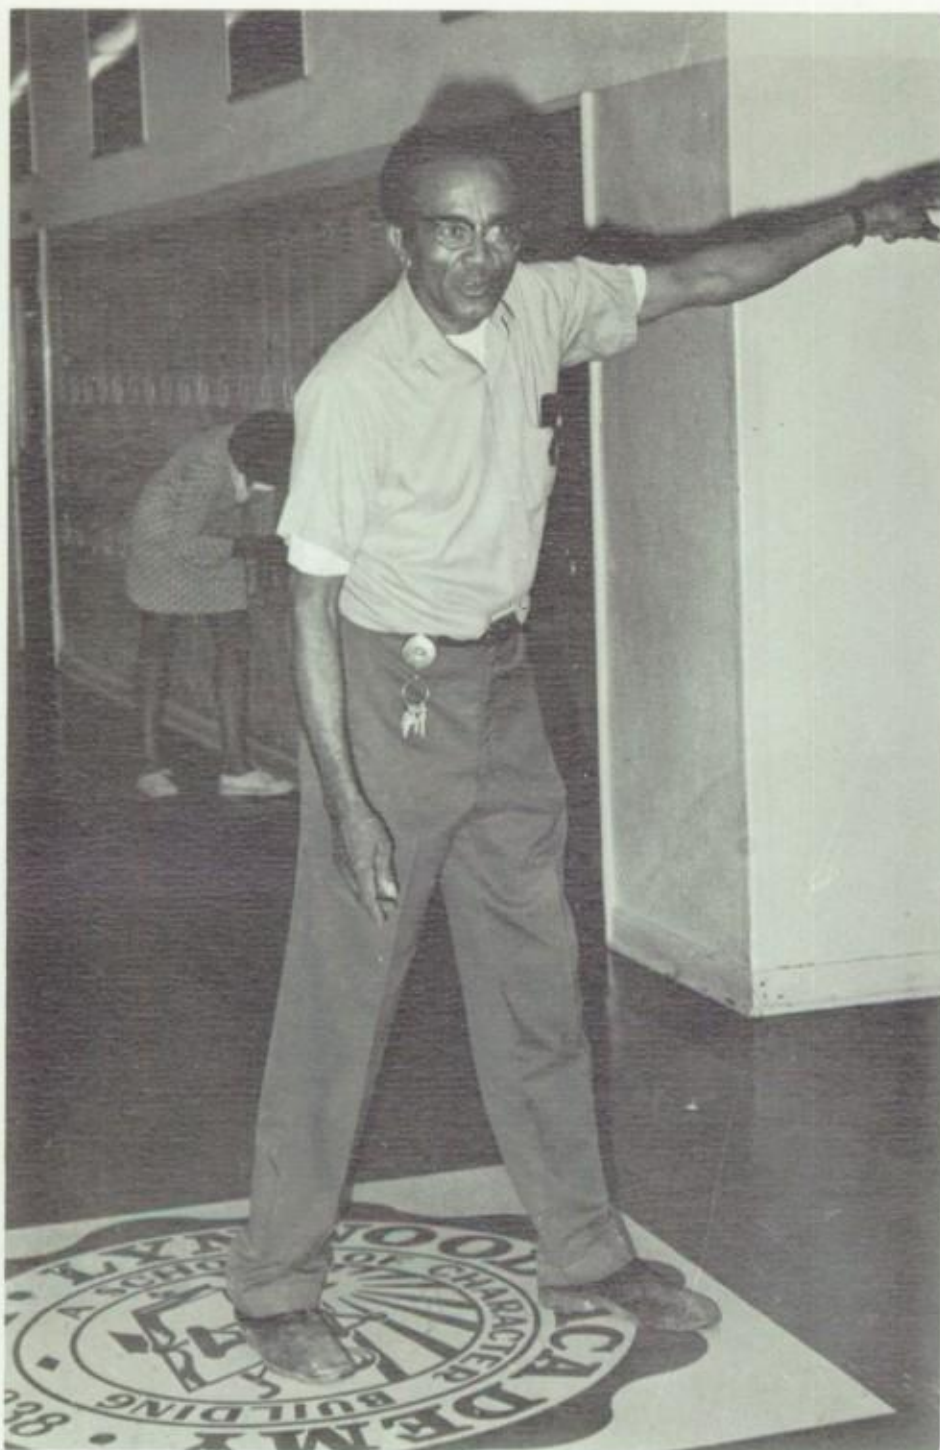

There is a song which says in essence if I can help someone as I travel through life, then my living will not have been in vain.

Lynwood's teachers have taken these words to heart; however, we have selected two men whom we consider outstanding because they are the personification of these words.

Pastor Larry Veverka

Elder Veverka, lovingly called Pastor V, has been at Lynwood for five years teaching senior Bible and functioning as guidance counselor. He was largely responsible for last year's seniors' overwhelming number of scholarships, and he is working equally hard this year. Despite his heavy school load, Pastor V finds time to sponsor the Mountaineering Club. He spends a lot of time working on his hot rod jeep muttering his favorite Indian pass word, Matawa. It means "Where is it?" and refers, we think, to mechanical success.

Mr. Maudell Baines

Mr. Baines, head maintenance man, has been at Lynwood for two years. As student work foreman, nothing warms his heart more than to see a young person working to make something of himself. When he knows this, he will try to help him in any way he can. It is not unusual to see him showing a student how to sweep the floor or giving counsel to a group of students about goofing off or getting to work on time. Even when Bro. Baines chases someone out of the hall at five o'clock, the ejectee can't help but leave respectfully. His Christian love is so close to the surface that it easily spills out in words of kindness and happy smiles.

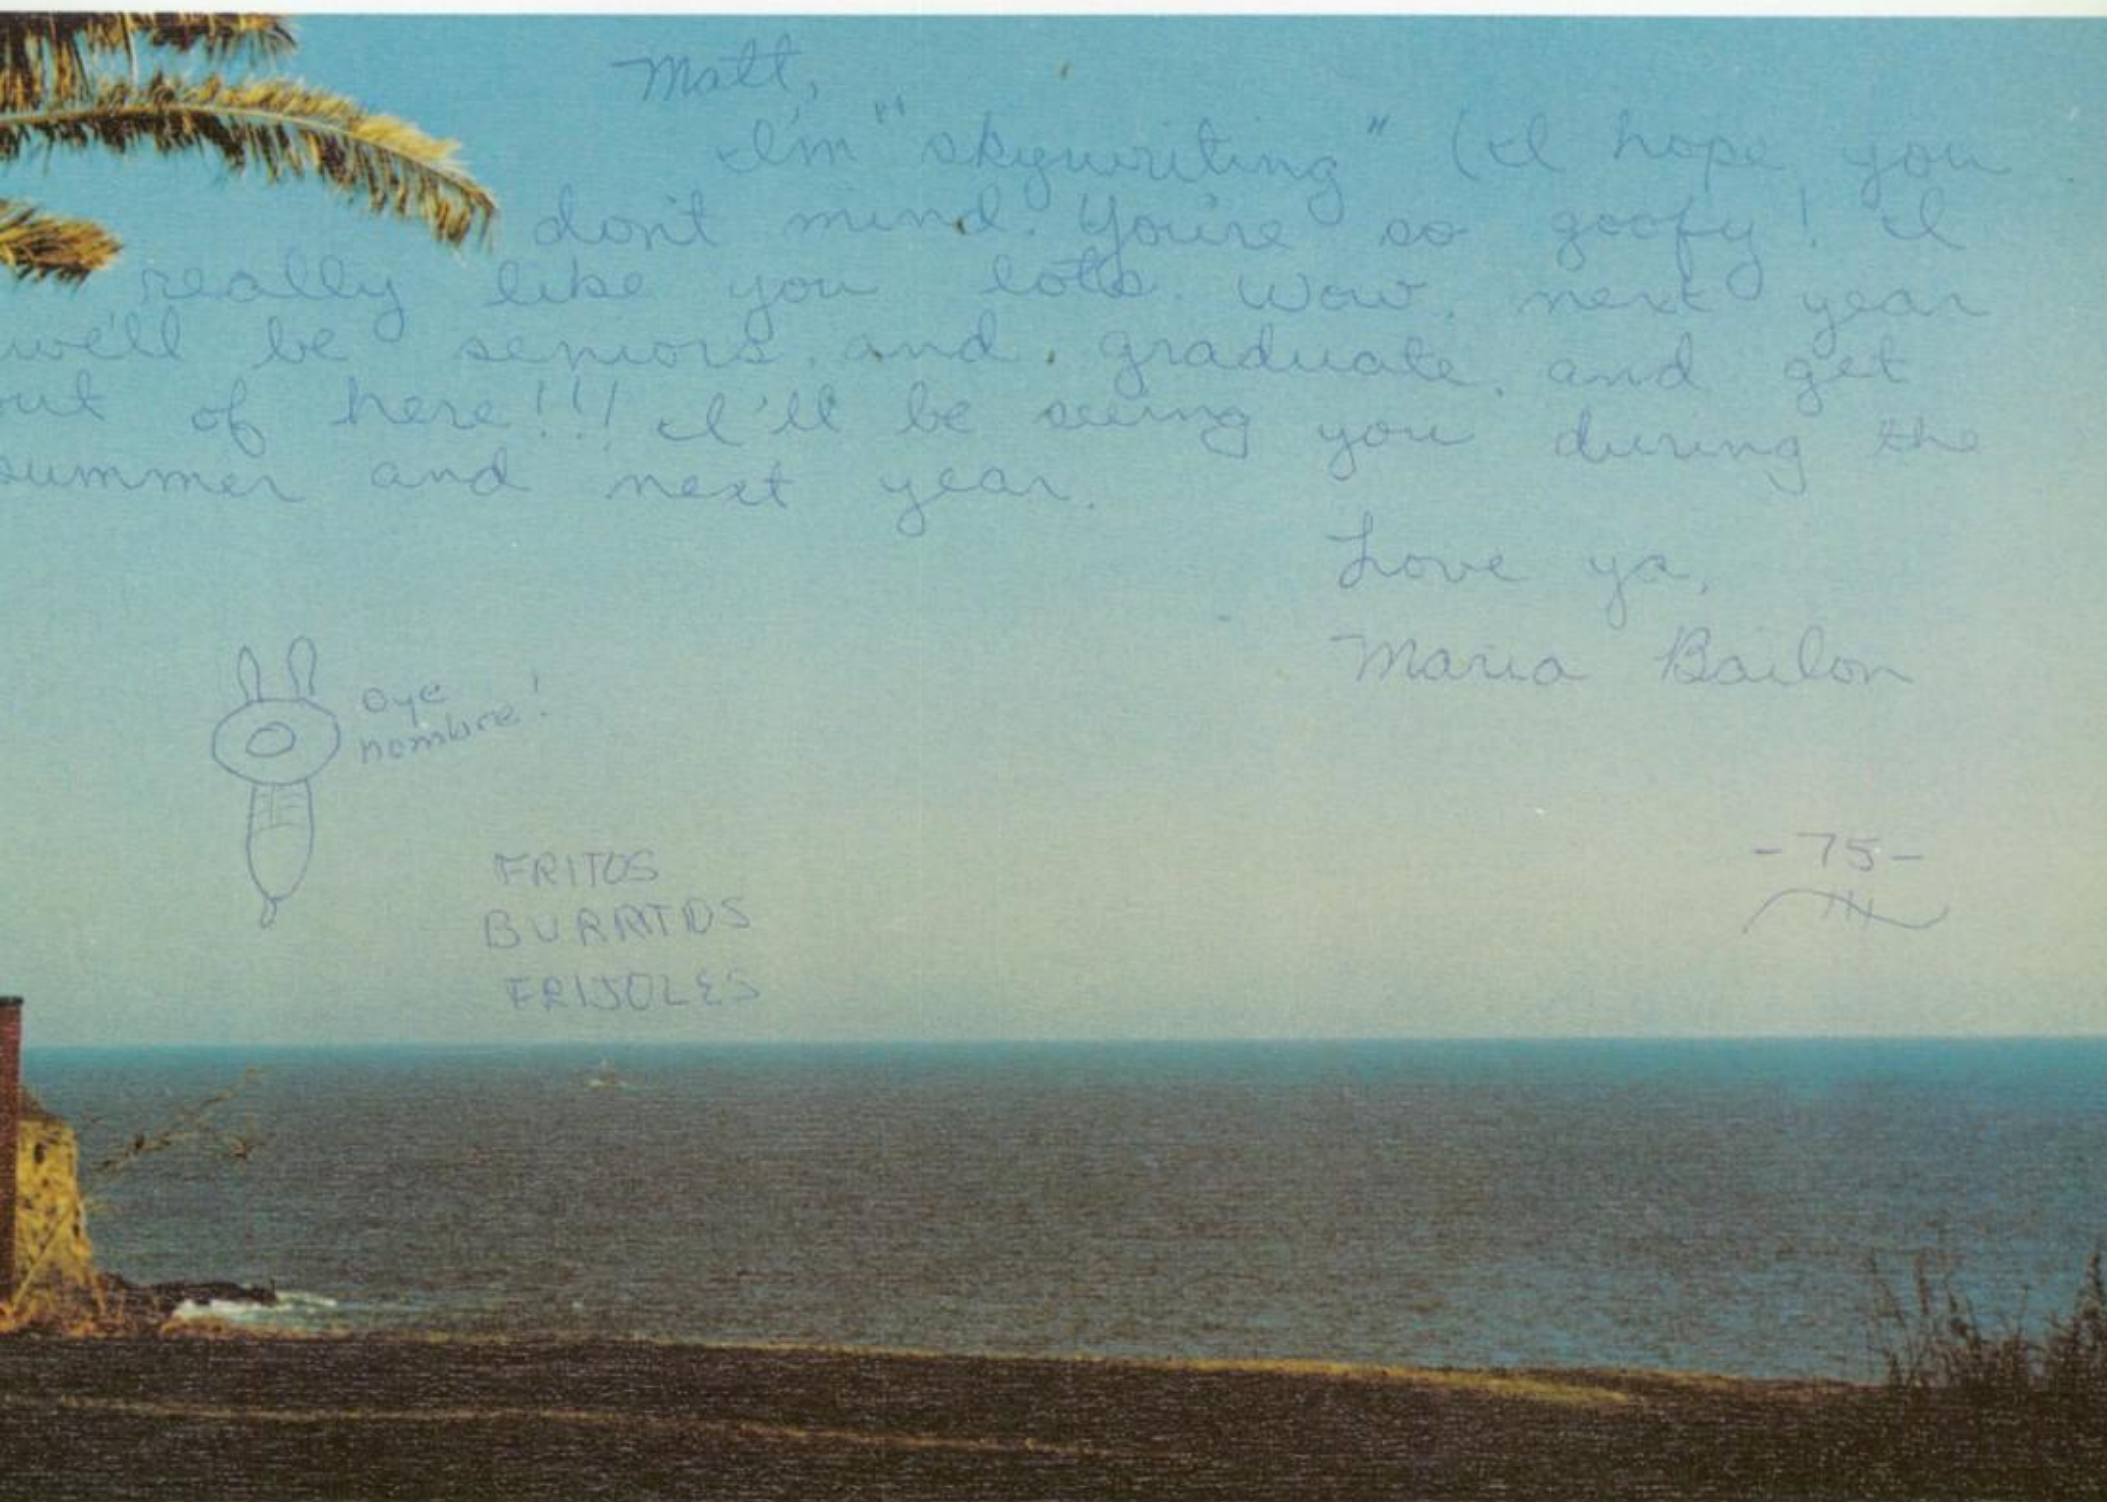

It is with these thoughts that we dedicate this annual to you both.

The first semester officers' goal was to work together as a unit with the Cabinet, Student Body, and Faculty to make the 1973-74 school year a "Vintage Year."

Loads of hard work, dedication, imagination, enthusiasm, and student participation all helped to make the first semester's program well balanced and unforgettable.

Log Campaign

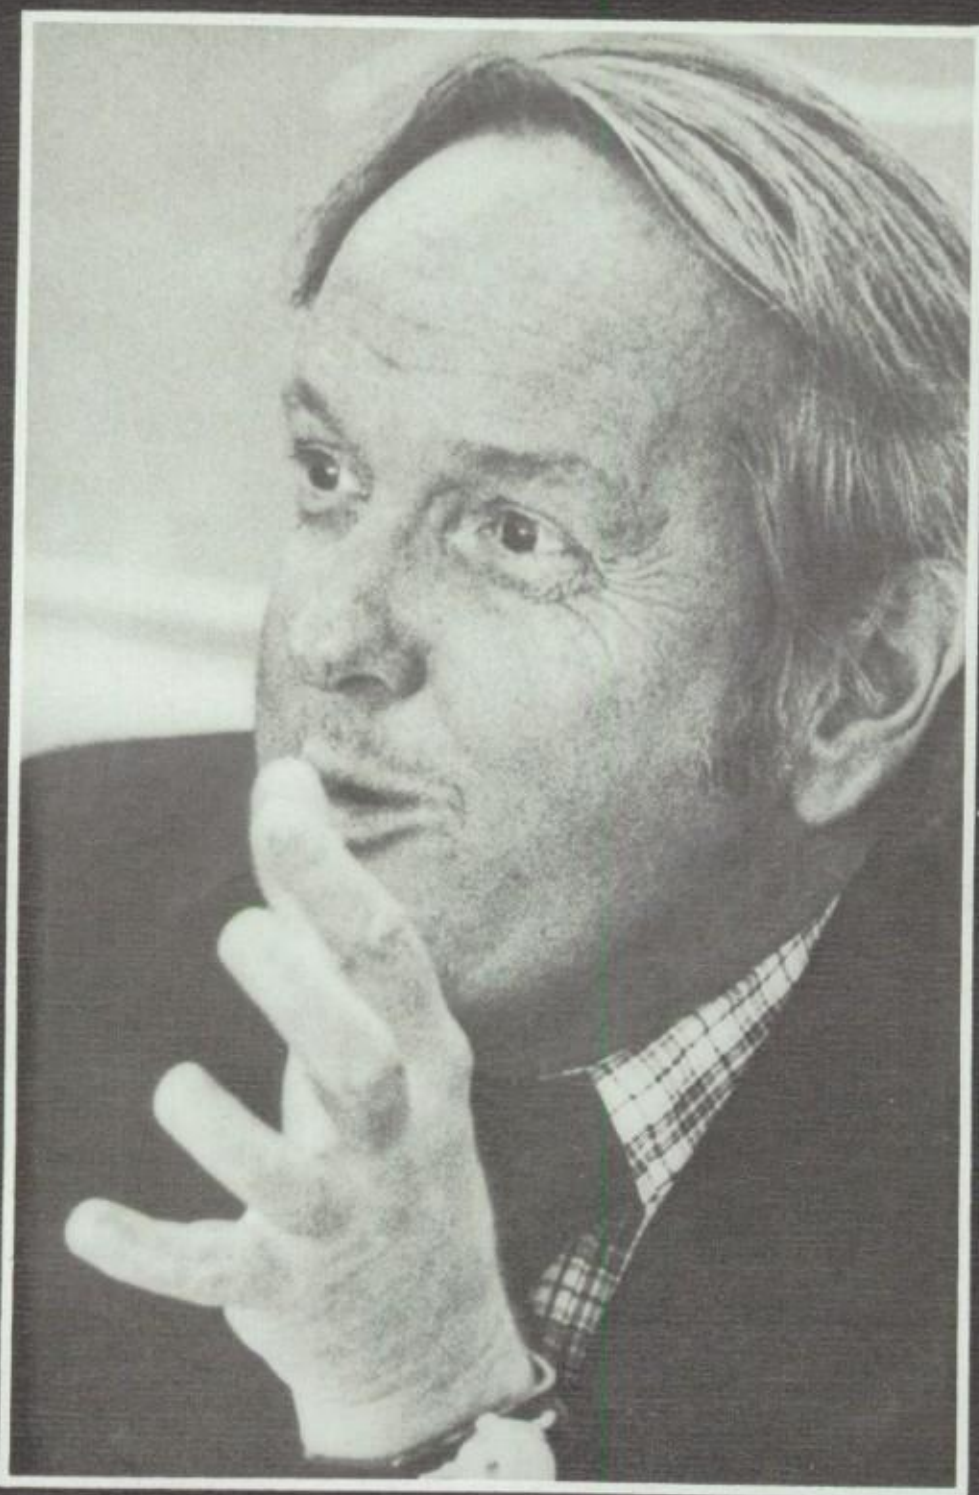

Expired- October 5, 1972.

The Lynwood Log expired October 5, 1972. The cause of death was lack of school spirit. The First Semester Cabinet of 1973 was determined to resurrect the Log. The way to get it resurrected was to get the entire student body in the campaign. The Freshmen and SENIORS formed the Sylvester team; the Sophomores and Juniors united under the banner of Tweety. The final tally of the subs took place in chapel. The tension mounted as the final minutes of the campaign drew to a close. Pat LoBue played the electric guitar along with Jim Newman at the drums. The score changed rapidly--First the Sylvesters led, then the Tweeties. People contributed money as the hat was passed around. We sacrificed lunch money! We wrote I.O.U.'s! We MADE IT!!!!!!!!!!!!!! We celebrated our victory with a picnic at Irvine Park.

IN MEMORIAM
of
JAMES POWELL

For more than a decade Jim Powell, representative of the American Yearbook Company, served Lynwood Academy SHIPMATE staffs with a dedication that will be sorely missed.

Many-a-time when deadlines were pressing he would pitch in and work with such expertise that students and sponsors alike profited from the experience. Mr. Powell died suddenly while working in his office early this school year, and left a void that is hard to fill.

We lovingly dedicate this page to his memory.

Missionary Seminar

Barry Nieman, President; Maria Bailon, Secretary; Beverly Smith, Vice-President; Greg Reseck, Treasurer; Larry Veverka, Sponsor.

The Missionary Seminar, religious activity department of Lynwood Academy, emphasized the spiritual atmosphere among the students at Lynwood Academy.

Some of the M.S. activities were: Putting on programs at various churches, visiting nursing homes, sponsoring a Christmas party for the children from the Watts Community Center.

Second Semester

The Second Semester Missionary Seminar tried to acquaint the students of Lynwood Academy with Christ as their personal friend. With activities as Bible camp, church programs, hospital and convalescent home visitations, the love of Christ was expressed.

In every school there is one person who represents school spirit, efficiency, tradition and the hard work that it takes to keep thing going. Mrs. Johnson, formerly Miss Fouts, is such a person. This is Mrs. Johnson's TWENTY-FIFTH year at Lynwood Academy. We offer a special thanks.

Throughout the years Mrs. Johnson has served in many positions: numerous class sponsorships, SHIPMATE and LOG sponsor for sixteen years (and never missed a deadline), business education teacher, attendance clerk, registrar, A.S.B. sponsor, social committee chairman and bus driver, just to name a few things.

The Associated Student Body saluted Mrs. Johnson with a special chapel "This is Your Life." Alumni, old friends and family were present. Mrs. Johnson is a hard driving person but one alumnus said, "Mrs. Johnson is such a good organizer, you don't realize how hard you're working." Mrs. Johnson's love for music and her missionary spirit lead to the establishment of the traditional Christmas Voice of Prophecy Program and offering. This year at her suggestion, the tradition was broken and the offering sent to the Watts Community Center. Organized, hard worker, efficient, perfectionist, good sport, fun loving counselor, and a friend to students--these words only begin to describe her.

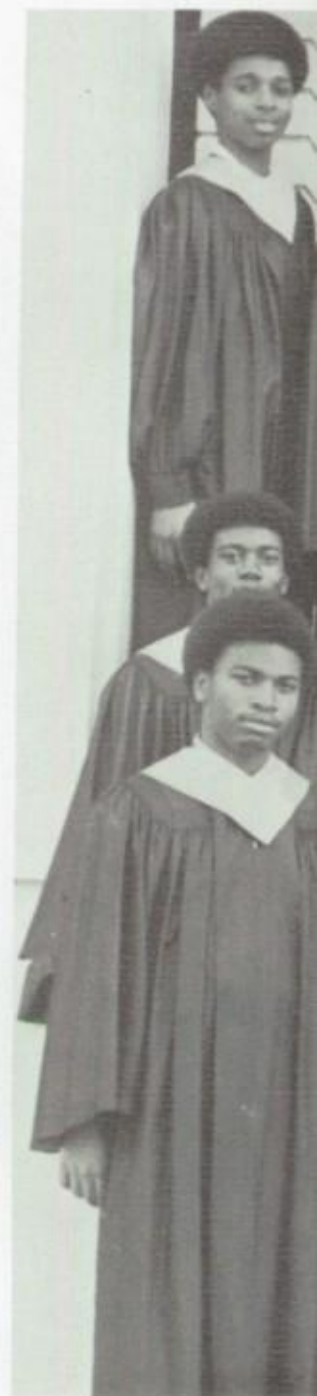

Mrs. Johnson, we appreciate you and your outstanding years of service to Lynwood Academy. May you continue even after the last Taylor has left.

Mr. Dennison accepts the trophy awarded to the Wind Ensemble and Choir for their participation in the Los Angeles County Fair.

The Candlelight Service is an annual service for the joint musical departments, held the Friday night before Christmas vacation. This year the Lynaires formed a cross of candles on the stairs of the Chapel. On the last number, Mr. John Dennison invited all alumni present to join the Concert Choir in the Halleujah Chorus from Handel's Messiah. We hope that this will be the start of a new tradition here at Lynwood.

Clubs

The French Club is one of Lynwood's active clubs. Its goals are to provide a chance to become acquainted with the French culture and to keep the students interested in the language. Activities included a field trip to the U.S.C. Language Department, attending plays, and sampling French cuisine.

PRESIDENT: Beverly Smith
 VICE PRESIDENT: Linda Barker
 TREASURER: Emily Hess
 SGT. - AT - ARMS: Karl Dodds
 SECRETARIES: Gloria Gomez
 Monica Perez

This is the Lynwood Academy Mountaineering Club, a group of average, everyday back-packers. Their activities included a rough day hike up Twin Peaks; a freezing snow survival trip up San Jacinto; a wet and dry hike into the Borrego desert country, wet because it rained all of the trip, and dry because they had to carry all of their drinking and cooking water in six miles; and a beautiful hike into the Havasupai Indian Reservation.

The sponsors are L. Veverka and D. Kendall. Officers are G. Reseck, Pres.; A. Rich, Vice-Pres.; B. Smith, Sec.; M. Lee, Treas.; and D. Bryson, Sgt.-at-arms. MATTAWA!!

Clubs

The Spanish Club is comprised of many students possessing different levels of command with the Spanish language. The club's main goal is to familiarize the students of Lynwood Academy with the Spanish culture. The activities included an excursion to the Romona Pageant, a Christmas party, Latin style and a camping trip to Ensenada, Mexico.

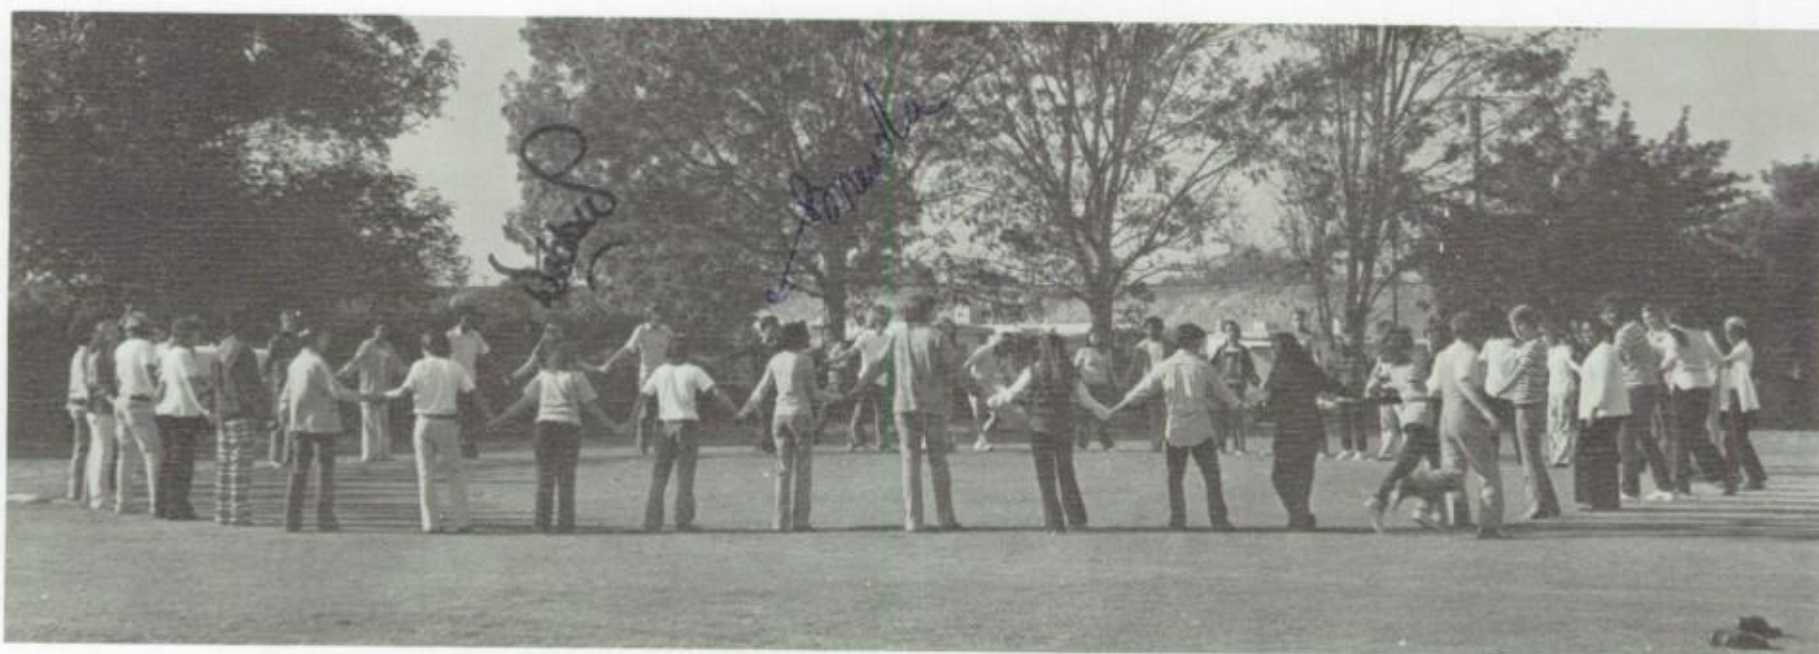

J. Barber, President; L. Machado, Vice-President; R. Marquez, Treasurer; M. Lee, Pastor; E. Lopez, Secretary; J. Sumilat, Assistant Sec.-Treas.; E. Smith, Sgt. -At-Arms; S. Mathey, R. McKenzie, Sponsors.

Activities

First Semester

First Semester included a variety of events. The students showed the true spirit of Christmas by giving an offering for the Watts Community Center.

On Student Leadership Day the students took over all teaching and administrative positions. In the picture below, Jack Doggette, vice-principal, warns, "If you sleep in Bible again. . ."

Sophomores

The sophomore planning committee members are: Gary Patitz, Pastor Veverka, Mrs. Johnson, Geri Evans, Stephanie Perry, Sheri Taylor, Erma Carter and Michael Cruz, chairman. The committee plans activities for the class. Some of the activities were a trip to Disneyland and a feast at Shakey's Pizza Palor.

The sophomore year is filled with a variety of experiences. No longer are they lowly, green freshmen; now they are COOL. After a long day of squirming through world history with Julius Caesar and Alexander the Great, dressing each other to resemble mummies in first aid, escaping perilous dangers in driver's training and trudging through the arid wastes of American Literature, what do they do? They just sit there; they're COOL. Vrrr--room! There goes one! He's finally got his liscense. Now he can drive to the banquets! (and to Pup 'n Taco)

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held in the Waikiki Room, Ports o' Call Restaurant, on February 19, at seven-thirty o'clock in the evening. The hosts of the evening were Matthew Cruz and his dummy, Matthew Jr. The food was delicious; however, the entertainment did not show up. The banquet left many mixed feelings. The totem pole represents the attitude of some. By the expression on Lita's face, we can see she had an enchanting evening. The Junior-Senior banquet created memories that will be cherished for years. The beautiful, warm, soothing sunset seemed to top the evening off wonderfully.

Saturday night, February 23 was the first gym night of the second semester. A group from Orangewood Academy (Athletics for Christ) combined with some of the top players of Lynwood to form two teams. Each team consisted of four players from each school. The spectators thought the game would be a dud, but it proved to be exciting. The green team edged the blue team 52-47. The highest scorer was Mike Lahl from Orangewood with 21 points.

Principal's Message

In a free translation of Philippians 3:13, 14, the greatest of Christian philosophers, the apostle Paul, entreated, "Beloved . . . forgetting our mistakes of the past, let us stretch and strain every mental and physical fiber to reach that which lies ahead. Though at times it may require agony, continue to press toward the heavenly goal--to the prize to which Jesus calls us."

To really live means "to be, to move, to progress." Living is an on going process which demands the full use of all our God-given faculties. For the Christian, living on this earth, there is no point or level at which we can stop, relax, or rest on our heavenly climb. On this enterprise we must persevere against principalities and powers that are bent on thwarting our aspirations. Yet, students, we are not alone; God lends a helping hand to those who earnestly strive. In your sojourn at Lynwood Academy, I pray that your personal confidence in God has been enriched and deepened. May heaven remain your eternal goal.

Awake, my soul! stretch every nerve
And press with vigor on;
A heavenly race demands the zeal,
And an immortal crown.

--Doddridge

Yours for the finest in Christian education,

Eldon E. Stratton,
Principal

Dear Matthew
The years go slow
at first - but watch it go next year - with all the responsibilities on a senior Editor and being God's richest blessing and may your resolve

Sincerely
Eldon Stratton

Lynwood Academy's Executive Board is chosen from the Constituency Board each year. The Executive Board carries on the work, develops policies, and gives recommendations for the operation of the academic program and the physical plant. From left to right we have pictured the members. Harold Calkins, Clinton Warren, Roland McKenzie, Leonard Webb, Eldon Stratton, Eva Bradford-Rock, Gunnar Lindegren, Samuel Remick, Vivian Wallar, Edward Johnson, Frank Gibbon, Jack Doggette, Samuel Meyers, Paul Plummer. Not pictured: Wilbert Schnieder, Corina Olguin, Wayne Eyer, Howard Lee, Chester Robinson, Eldridge Smith, Aldin Young.

Gunnar Lindegren, M.D. has given many hours of time in support of Lynwood Academy during the five years he has been Chairman of the Board. He has been outstanding in keeping all groups working in harmony during a critical period of time for the school.

The school year will be over in a few weeks and as the big events of graduation near, we are shakey from the thought of taking that big step toward life, yet, we are prepared - prepared to make decisions on our own, prepared to meet the challenge that the world has to offer. We hesitate when we think that we may never see each other again, but we know we must move up the ladder of life.

So as we come to the close of another school year, I would like to turn back the hands of time four years when it all started. This was when we were only freshmen, students who had not yet found a real goal in life. We thought then that if you wanted to be happy in life, you must have money, a high position, and popularity. But as our years of schooling passed and the influence of our Christian faculty members fell upon us, we began to realize that we could live a life of joy and contentment, only if we placed our eyes wholly upon God, our Father.

In closing, I would like to thank our class sponsors, along with our class officers for helping with our class functions during the year.

Senior Activities

Hey the mighty seniors!
HA!

The senior class presentation featuring class talent was a total success. The presentation speaker was James Kyle, a theology student, and a 1969 graduate of Lynwood Academy. Pastor Kyle challenged the Seniors to totally commit themselves to Christ. Milton Woodson, class president, delivered a truthful and dynamic speech. Milton told some of the struggles Seniors have gone and will go through, but with God's help, everything will come out fine.

The people at the top of the page were voted by the senior class as: most studious, Beverly Smith and Henry Masters; best dressed, Michelle Cross and Barry Nieman; best personality, Brenda Taylor and Milton Woodson; best looking, Lollie Lopez and Leonard Bechet; shyest, Sheryl Ettinghausen and Clay Cole; class clowns, Rose Hunt and Edward Watson.

Matthew,
you've changed! :D

Wow! Today really was rough.
I'm sure glad it's over. . .
Well I'll see you tomorrow. . .
What, call you? O.K., I'll talk to you then.

Ads are a very important part of a yearbook. Without the support of the local business a yearbook could not be printed. It is for this reason that the people who have contributed their support to a yearbook are to be thanked. While looking through the following pages please keep in mind that these people have helped make possible our yearbook. Please patronize them accordingly.

Spend your life where most people are happy to spend a vacation!

The Profession

Beyond the books, the labs and the lectures, life begins. And how you live it depends a lot on where you're at. Glendale Adventist Medical Center not only offers you a great place to begin, but a great place to grow. From librarians to accountants. From nurses to computer programmers. From secretaries to engineers. Glendale needs them all. Why not discover where your talents can fit in?

The Pleasure

The Glendale style of life is unique. For the young, Glendale is a center of constant activity. Single clubs, young married clubs and other church activities. The Glendale Symphony. The mountains. The beaches. The desert. And all the rest that goes with people involved in life. At Glendale, we can offer you more than a job.

To Matthew,
 It was nice corresponding to you for a while during school. Maybe we can do it again this summer!
 Hey you ol' senior! But you better watch out for us juniors "76"!!!
 Have a great summer and see ya next year! Love, Cathy

The Medical Center endeavors to provide highly personalized service to individual patients through modern facilities and procedures, skills and efforts of qualified personnel whose central concern is for the well being of the whole patient—physically, mentally, and spiritually.

The Medical Center has an obligation to the community to perform a role which through patient care and services, research, and teaching, creates a center of influence for the restoration of the whole man.

The Medical Center takes pride in being a church-related institution, attempting to supply an atmosphere which inspires students and employees to consecrate their lives to the work of Him who said, "Heal the sick."

WHITE MEMORIAL MEDICAL CENTER

Photos depict current Medical Center activities fulfilling a distinctive Christian philosophy through research, patient relations, advanced surgical techniques, specialized care, and a continuing building program.

The Day is Done

May 24, 1974

Dear Matthew

Aren't I privileged to have an entire page reserved for little ol' me?!? Well, I feel privileged. Thank you. 😊

In spite of everything, (missed deadlines, incompetent workers, etc.) the shipmate is really beautiful. But, of course, next year it'll be indescribably beautiful! You'll have to teach me lots 'cause I know nothing about being on a yearbook staff.

You know what, dear friend, it's really neat working with you. Next year's going to be a blast. I'm so glad we are giving Bible studies together with Mrs. Curtis. Isn't it ^{it} neat to see the Holy Spirit working with us? These experiences are going to strengthen us so much. I wish everyone ^{know} how important it is to be in a situation where you can see God's Spirit working to win souls for Jesus. In the future, when trials come, and we are put on the spot because of our convictions, we will have a firm foundation and our faith will keep us from falling. PTL!!!

It always seems that at the end of the year, when we are all ~~too~~ ^{writing} in annuals, that our thoughts become highly philosophical. I know this is true about myself. So be prepared for the following! 😊

I don't know how much longer we'll be here, on this earth. But however long (or short) a time it is, I want us to be in contact through it all. If we should both live on to raise families on this earth, well, I want us to visit one another, and let our families fellowship with one another. If time is running out, as the trend seems to be, then let us all be strong in the Lord, and help each other to stand upright and determined. Being a Christian has got to be the most beautiful experience imaginable. 😊

Hey, when I first started writing I thought, "How can I fill up this page?" Now I find myself needing more room! May the Lord be your strength always! Love ya lots & lots,
P. M. Johnston

I just wanted to say that you have been a friend for the year and so keep on being on for the years ahead.
Keep on with Cindy she's your best bet.

See you around

Matthew,
Yell this year sure has been screwed. Oh well, next year ~~we~~ we will be seniors. Only one more year. Keep trying.

To Matthew,
Been nice knowing you here at Wynwood. Have fun this summer. Julie Ovando

Dear Matthew,
It's really been an experience having you in French I. I can truthfully say that I've never met any one as nutty as you! I hope next year we can have more classes together! See you next year!
Love,

Dear Matt
 I just had to think of something witty to write in your annual. So here's what I came up with:
 "Roses are red
 Violets are blue, Matthew" digs "Cinchy" and Cinchy does too!"
 Oh well I tried!

Handy Matthew, you're almost a senior!
 Aren't you glad you that well but like
 I don't really know you that well but like I said you appear to be a fine Christian young man. Our Sabbath school really did enjoy your program! It's always nice to see you walking down the hall at school with a big smile and a friend Hello! Good luck in the future! Have a exciting summer!
 Love Goddy

DEAR MATTHEW:
 IT'S BEEN A LONG 11 YEARS!!!
 BUT, THROUGH IT ALL, I HAVE HAD A GREAT TIME. (NO THANK TO YOU!!) WELL, HAPPILY
 NEXT YEAR WILL BE THE LAST ONE I'LL HAVE TO PUT UP WITH YOU! 😊 HAVE A GREAT SUMMER, AND I HOPE TO SEE YOU
 AT UBS. 😊 GOOD LUCK + GOD BLESS.

Love!
 Susan
 I hope you had fun this year! I sure did you really a wonderful friend. you have to become way class to me.
 Love ya

dear matthew,

its really been a fun
year but it went by too fast.
i cant imagine what worship would have been like without you & your cute little remarks. well all of my freshmen fun is just about gone but your senior year is just approaching. i really wish you alot of luck in everything you do. stay sweet & be good to cindy.
hope to see you next year.

love,

terri

Matthew,

It has been an experience
knowing you this year!
Must a good experience!!
Work hard at all those responsibilities next year... you will be busy but dont forget school work.
Have fun in Bio II or Chemistry!

Mrs. Andace
